教學綱要

一、教學目標(Objective)

The course will initiate the students into the realm of literary works written in the United States of America. The course will focus on important achievements of writers, the historical background, and above all how the works reveal their multiple implications through language, how works connote aspects of life, and how aesthetics exerts its power in both life in works and life in reality. Therefore, the course will be carried on with a consciousness of language-learning accompanying the study of literature. The uses of words relevant to the life and literary contexts will be brought to the students' attention and practice of these words will be a major focus of this course.

二、先修科目(Pre Course)

三、教材內容(Outline)

The course aims to give the students a general scope of American Literature starting from the early 17th century of Puritanism through the beginning of the 20th century.

四、教學方式(Teaching Method)

1. Instruction and discussion 2. The students are required to preview the texts before class. Without preview, class discussion is almost impossible.
